YOUR JOURNEY STARTS HERE

Day 1:

SINGAPORE – TASHKENT

Arrival in Tashkent

Arrive at Tashkent International Airport, where our local representative will welcome you and transfer you to the hotel to check in and relax after your flight.

Tashkent

Uzbekistan's modern capital, where wide tree-lined avenues, elegant squares and lively neighbourhoods sit alongside centuries-old traditions, offering a warm introduction to the country and its hospitality.

DINNER

Day 2:

CHIMGAN MOUNTAINS & CHARVAK LAKE

Chinorkent Cable Car

Chinorkent Cable Car is a beautiful mountain recreation complex located in Khojikent, Bostanlyk District, approximately 65 km from Tashkent (around 1–1.5 hours by car). It is more than just a cable car. There are several attractions at the top of the mountain, making it a good half-day excursion for tourists, families and couples.

Chimgan Mountains

Part of the Western Tian Shan range, Chimgan is known for its rugged peaks, green valleys and panoramic mountain scenery, a refreshing contrast to the city and ideal for landscape photography.

Charvak Lake

A striking blue-green reservoir surrounded by the foothills of the Tian Shan. Its sweeping water-and-mountain views make it one of the region's most photogenic landscapes.

BREAKFAST, LUNCH & DINNER

THE JEWELS OF SAMARKAND

Day 3:

TASHKENT – SAMARKAND

Afrosiyob High-Speed Train

Board the Afrosiyob high-speed train for a comfortable journey of around 2 hours 10–20 minutes to Samarkand.

Imam Al-Bukhari Mausoleum

A revered pilgrimage complex honouring Imam Al-Bukhari, the great hadith scholar, with intricate tilework, an elegant blue dome and a serene courtyard.

Samarkand

One of the oldest cities in Central Asia, with more than 2,500 years of history. It was one of the most important centres on the Great Silk Road, linking China, India, Persia and Europe.

BREAKFAST, LUNCH & DINNER

Day 4:

SAMARKAND CITY TOUR

Registan Square

The iconic heart of Samarkand, framed by three magnificent madrasahs adorned with brilliant mosaics and monumental portals.

Gur-Emir Mausoleum

The resting place of Amir Timur and the Timurid dynasty, crowned by a ribbed turquoise dome and a richly decorated interior.

Bibi-Khanym Mosque

Once among the grandest mosques of the Islamic world, with a vast courtyard, soaring portal and blue-tiled domes.

Shah-i-Zinda

A beautiful avenue of mausoleums and one of Samarkand's most atmospheric sacred sites, covered in extraordinary turquoise, cobalt and patterned ceramic decoration.

Siab Bazaar

Samarkand's traditional market, full of colourful produce, spices, dried fruits and freshly baked non bread, perfect for shopping for treats.

BREAKFAST, LUNCH & DINNER

SILK ROAD CITIES TO ALPINE PEAKS

Day 5:

SAMARKAND – TASHKENT

Eternal City
A themed cultural complex with streets and courtyards inspired by Silk Road architecture, lovely photo spots and regional crafts.

Konigil Village
A traditional village on the outskirts of Samarkand, known for preserving local crafts and rural traditions.

Plov Masterclass & Folklore Show
Learn to cook Uzbekistan's celebrated rice dish in a home-style plov masterclass, followed by a lively folklore show.

Afrosiyob Train to Tashkent
After some last-minute bazaar shopping, return to Tashkent by high-speed train for check-in and overnight.

BREAKFAST, LUNCH & DINNER

Day 6:

TASHKENT – ALMATY

Independence Square
One of Tashkent's principal civic spaces, celebrating the nation's independence with landscaped avenues and monuments.

Amir Temur Square
A central square dedicated to Amir Timur, framed by grand buildings and green spaces, a snapshot of modern Tashkent.

Chorsu Bazaar
Beneath its famous blue dome, colourful stalls of fruit, spices, nuts and breads offer a lively window into Uzbek daily life. Lunch is included.

Evening Flight to Almaty
Transfer to the airport for the evening flight to Almaty, Kazakhstan, where our guide will meet you and transfer you to the hotel.

BREAKFAST, LUNCH & DINNER

ALPINE PEAKS OF ALMATY

Day 7:

ALMATY & SHYMBULAK

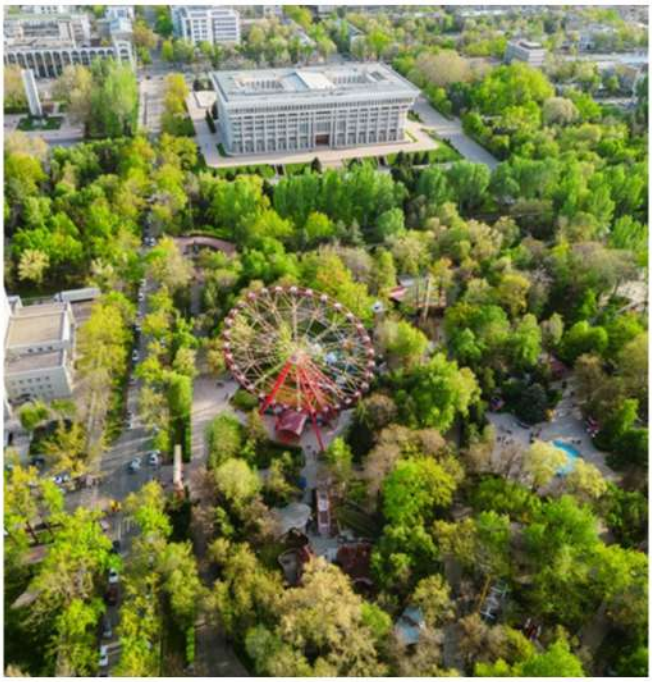
Panfilov Park
A peaceful green oasis in central Almaty, with shaded paths, memorials and seasonal flower displays, a favourite spot for a gentle stroll.

Zenkov Cathedral
A colourful Russian Orthodox cathedral built largely of wood, famous for its painted exterior and bright domes, and one of Almaty's most recognisable landmarks.

Medeu
A high-altitude sports complex set in a spectacular mountain valley, best known for its outdoor ice-skating rink and dramatic alpine setting.

Shymbulak Mountain Resort
A popular resort above Almaty with sweeping views of the surrounding peaks. Ride the cable car up the slopes for panoramic scenery, subject to weather and operation.

BREAKFAST, LUNCH & DINNER



Day 8:

KOK-TOBE & ARASAN SPA

Kok-Tobe Hill
A hilltop viewpoint overlooking Almaty, known for broad city panoramas set against the snow-capped Tian Shan mountains, followed by a relaxed city visit and shopping time.

Arasan Spa
A well-known Almaty bathing complex inspired by traditional bathhouse culture, offering a soothing wellness experience in the afternoon, subject to opening hours and availability.

BREAKFAST, LUNCH & DINNER

INTO THE HEART OF KYRGYZSTAN

Day 9:

ALMATY – BISHKEK

Scenic Drive to Kyrgyzstan
Journey about 240 km to Bishkek via the Korday–Ak-Zhol border (around 5–6 hours including formalities), through the Chuy Valley with the Tian Shan on the horizon.

Bishkek

Arrive in Kyrgyzstan's leafy capital and check in. Time permitting, enjoy a short introductory city drive.

BREAKFAST, LUNCH & DINNER

Day 10:

ALA-ARCHA & BURANA TOWER

Ala-Archa National Park
A spectacular mountain reserve about 40 km from Bishkek, with alpine peaks, forested slopes and a clear mountain river. Enjoy an easy walk.

Burana Tower
A historic minaret near Tokmok, the most recognisable remnant of the Silk Road city of Balasagun, with ancient stone balbals nearby.

Eagle Hunting Show
Watch a traditional eagle hunting demonstration, a time-honoured skill of Kyrgyz nomadic culture passed down through generations.

BREAKFAST, LUNCH & DINNER

Day 11 & 12:

BISHKEK – TASHKENT – KUALA LUMPUR - SINGAPORE

Last-Minute Shopping
Browse local shops for Kyrgyz souvenirs and handicrafts before your journey home, depending on flight timing.

Flight Home
Transfer to Manas International Airport for your flight to Tashkent, connecting overnight to Kuala Lumpur and Singapore.
